To Whom it be concern

~~My name is Dave Hastent~~

I'm writing in regards to Dewey's Hastent. Dewey is my older brother by 5 yrs. I see him on a weekly basis, now that he's out of hospital.

I know his sentencing is coming up soon. I'm pleading for you to give him probation. Dewey, with his health issues, he's locked within his own prison. He needs 24 hr assistance, getting out of bed, dressing and everything we all do ~~on a~~ on a daily routine.

Dewey will never drive, now he's grass (which he enjoyed), never do any of the simple pleasures he ~~used~~ ^{use} to enjoy. Dewey is 74 yrs., his car is taken a close friend is in his 80's (How long can that last). He's looked down upon by the ~~county~~ county & a lot of people, who came to him in the past for help (and not for what he's being charged with), now no one ~~wants~~ wants anything to do with him.

Depression, that's going to set in sooner or later, live your life in a wheel chair, puttin' in a walker, if your legs don't give out, diabetic, someone always has to be watching ^{over} you. That's not much of a free life, THAT'S prison. If it were me, I'd be wheeling that chair to the highway, and waiting for a semi.
